PRESIDENT'S CORNER November 2022

Hi everyone! As I write this it is mid-October and who would have thought that we would have a cold and breezy day and freeze warnings! Texas weather is surely unpredictable, or is it climate change. You be the judge on that one. I am looking forward to our guest speaker, Nancy Rolfsema, this month. She will have two workshops, one after our guild meeting on Thursday and then a full day workshop on Friday. Details will be provided later in this newsletter. I also am looking forward to a great 2022 and 2023 year as your President. I believe that we have a wonderful Board and Committee chairs that will make the upcoming year a lot of fun. Stay tuned for more information as we progress through the year. Hope all is well with you and wishing you a very Happy Thanksgiving!

Sherry Gary

Programs & Workshops

Thanks to Pat Graham for organizing and to everyone who participated in the White Elephant Sale in October in lieu of a program or workshop. My sewing room is much more organized because of it.

November-Nancy Roelfsema

I am excited that we have another national speaker coming straight from teaching at the Houston International Quilt Show! Nancy Roelfsema is a great teacher and has a wonderful YouTube channel and website called Onpoint-TV. She is going to tell us about her Quilting Journey and provide a trunk show. Nancy is very entertaining and I am sure that you will enjoy her program and love her workshops. These workshops were selected with Guild member input and will cost approximately half what they do at the Houston QS so I hope you will fill the classes completely. Nancy has such large variety of classes that she teaches that we are going to have 2 different workshops!

Workshop- Fractured Glass

On Thursday afternoon after guild, she will teach a half day workshop. Look at the pictures on our website and you will see that this would be great made in modern fabrics, brights, or juvenile fabrics. Lots of possibilities! The class is $30 + $12 for the pattern. Supply list: here

Workshop- Lone Star

Supply list: here

We have opened the workshops to other guilds and friends for only $10.00 more than our member price. There are only a few spaces left.

December—Guild Christmas party

We will enjoy a festive Christmas potluck. Bring your show and tell donation items and enjoy games with prizes. For more information, see the events section of the newsletter.

Community Service

Community Service Update

The once eliminated position of Community Service Coordinator is being reorganized to oversee the charitable projects of the Guild. I would like to encourage all members to help if you can to fill the needs of those in our community.

Making quilts and pillowcases helps to soften the hard reality for those who have found themselves in unbelievable situations. If you would like to donate your time in piecing tops, quilting quilts or binding quilts, please contact Susan Kerr, Coordinator of Community Service Sewing (previously known as Cuddle Quilts). If you would like to donate your time working on quilts for veterans, please contact Pat Graham, Coordinator of Quilts of Valor. If you would be interested in making "go bag" pillowcases, please contact Corey Starkey, Coordinator of Pillowcases.

As always, donations of cotton fabric or batting are most appreciated.

Susan Branscum

Community Service Coordinator

Community Service Sewing-Cuddle Quilts

I was overwhelmed by the generosity of time and talent shown by our Guild membership during the October meeting. Cuddle Quilts received 25 finished quilts at that time! I have since taken in 13 Cuddle Quilts for an October total of 38 quilts ready for distribution to the organizations we serve.

We have 12 quilt tops with batting and backing waiting for our volunteer quilters/Long-armers to quilt. Please stop by the Cuddle Quilts table during the November Guild meeting to pick one up!

There were six in attendance at the Community Service Sew Day on Tuesday, October 18th. We all were sewing for Cuddle Quilts, but as a reminder, all QGETx community sewing groups are welcome. The sew day is the third Tuesday of each month from 10-3 at the First Baptist Church, 301 West Ferguson Street in Tyler.

Sincerely,

Susan Kerr

Members of QGET QOV group are asking those willing to help us to:

1. Make a 12.5" unfinished block, pattern of your choosing, of patriotic fabric (as simple as red, white, and blue) Members will then stitch them into a quilt. We would like these at the December meeting but take them anytime.
2. Donate any orphan block of any size in patriotic colors.
3. Donate any patriotic fabric to the group
4. Join our group to sew veterans' quilts – goal is to wrap our veterans in Tyler and surrounding areas
 With a quilt – see membership form. We are only meeting together once a quarter except when we award a quilt.
5. Nominate any veterans you know of either by filling out form below and getting them to Pat Graham
 Or go on QOVF website and nominate online. All those nominated in our area will come to us to make a quilt and award.

Our veterans have sacrificed their time and lives to keep us safe so we may enjoy all the pleasures of life. America is incredibly fortunate to enjoy freedom without fear of invasion or war thanks to our military.

Our little group believes we should show our heartfelt gratitude to these men and women of Valor for this Freedom we enjoy.

All QOV quilts have their own label with the recipient's name, the piecemaker, quilter and binder of the quilts name and date awarded.

But, we wanted our own QGET label so Lucinda Cox with some suggestions from Susan Branscum and myself created this beautiful label which can be used for all our community service projects. It is using our own Guild block, the Friendship Knot and roses added in for Tyler. Accolades to Lucinda!
