The Stitchin' Times Newsletter

September 2023

President's Corner

This is my last message to you as your President, and I have to say that it is bittersweet. It has been my distinct honor and privilege to serve you in this capacity. There have been ups and downs over these past two years, but all in all it has been a wonderful time. You, the Guild have supported me and have gently corrected me when I went astray. Thank you all for being there for me and I hope that you will continue to give your backing to the upcoming slate of officers and committee chairs. Thank you.

Sherry Gary

President

Upcoming Programs and Workshops

Our workshop location is back to the original location in the CLC! We are excited to be back in our original location. Our start time remains at 9:00AM.

September 14th Program- Annette Plog –The Care and Feeding of a Fabric Stash

Annette has been quilting since she learned to piece her first quilt, a Lone Star Quilt, in 1987. Being a lover of antique quilts, reproducing these quilts is one of her favorite processes. Through the study of fabric history, collecting antique quilts and an informal education involving classes, reading and learning from the antique dealers has added to her fabric knowledge. Annette has authored two books, True Blue Quilts and Time Honored Traditions, along with teaching, lecturing, writing patterns and displaying her own quilts at various shows. Her first fabric line with Windham, Petite Perennials, is the next step in her love of fabric and quilting. Reproduction fabrics are her first fabric love!

Workshop Friday, September 15th –9:00 -
4:00pm-The Pineapple Quilt 9:00-4:00 in the Christian Life Center

Annette's method uses foundation paper stitching on top of the paper, not the flip and sew method.

Workshop: $45 The pineapple papers will be $18 per package of 20 papers. For more information and to sign-up, follow this link to our website. Quilt Guild of East Texas - Pineapple Quilt - Annette Plog \(qgetx.org\)

November Program – Giuseppe Ribaldo, aka Giucy Giuce – November 9, 2023

Giuseppe Ribaldo (aka Giucy Giuce) grew up in Long Island, NY. First generation Sicilian-American on his dad's side and second on his mom's, his family lived on the bottom floor of his maternal grandparents' house. His grandmother is a talented and prolific seamstress who taught him to sew at an early age, though it wasn't until he was in college that he discovered quilting. Giuseppe joined Instagram, shortly thereafter and quickly found himself making long distance friends in the quilting community via social media.

After having bounced around the country for about a decade Giuseppe moved back New York to pursue a career in textiles. Within a few months of being in NYC he was offered a marketing position at Andover Fabrics and was promoted to multimedia manager a year later. In 2018, he turned his focus to fabric design and released his first collection Quantum. In 2021 he released his tenth collection called Nonna, an homage to his grandmother and her home where he learned to sew. Nonna led Giuseppe to an Italian holiday collection to be released in summer of 2023 called Natale.

Giuseppe currently resides in Portland, Maine where he continues to design fabric and patterns and teach quilting classes.

Quilt Show News

The name of the show is “The Joy of Color”. This name was created because the name of our Raffle quilt is Joy and a quilt show is awash with color. Hope you all like it. Show pins, and the post cards will be ordered within a short time. And, as always, I will be asking for volunteers to chair all the various positions required to put on a great show.

Community Projects Update

Community Projects

Thanks to our members' hard work, we were able to donate 20 Cuddle Quilts and 20 Drawstring Pillowcases to Hope Haven of East Texas. Hope Haven is a faith-based nonprofit organization that serves girls who are in the Texas foster care system. "We do this through three programs. Our Gateway of Hope campus serves girls ages 13-17 who need a therapeutic environment to address emotional and behavioral issues. Our Oak Haven campus offers shared housing for four young women ages 18-21 who need assistance transitioning into adulthood from foster care. Our Danielle's Home of Hope campus provides temporary shelter for girls ages 5-17 who have recently entered foster care or had a disruption to their current placement and are awaiting a more permanent home either with a relative, a foster or adoptive family, or a therapeutic program. Our goal is to provide a loving, nurturing environment where the girls will get their needs met in ways that promote their understanding that they are safe, precious, and have a voice."

Additionally, we were able to send 41 Cuddle Quilts and 14 Pillowcases to the people in Maui who lost their homes in the recent wildfires. Many thanks to Lisa Martin, Susan Kerr, Maresa Campbell, Sherry Gary and Kathy Vintges for packing up all those quilts and mailing them off! And a huge thank you to Susan Kerr for chairing the Cuddle Quilts effort and to Lisa Martin for heading up Drawstring Pillowcases. You ladies are amazing!

Quilts of Valor, led by Pat Graham, has had a huge year! We awarded 9 quilts in August: 4 to Tyler Marines and 5 to Watkins-Logan wheelchair vets. They were so much fun and very appreciative. This puts our total Quilts of Valor awarded since last September at 57!! Well done everyone who has contributed to this monumental effort.

We will have the honor of awarding a Quilt of Valor during the pregame of a UT soccer game on Sept. 9th. This 99-year-old WWII Watkins-Logan veteran was a POW for 220 days in a Nazi Germany concentration camp.

We currently have 30 more nominations to wrap in Quilts of Valor. Pat reports: "We had a great sew day Monday, August 14th with 13 ladies putting together scraps of fabric, and we have several more tops in the works. Cindy and Debbie worked on piecing scraps of batting together and put together enough for 3 more quilts. Thank you gals for all your hard work. Our amazing servicemen are worth all our efforts. The Guild members have been amazing as well in their generosity and I can't thank them enough."

The next quarterly Quilts of Valor sew day will be Monday, November 13th at Pat Graham's home, 512 Woodland Hills Dr. 75701 – 9:00 a.m.- 3:00 pm.

The next Community Projects sew day will be Tuesday, September 19th. We meet at First Baptist Church on Ferguson St. from 10:00 am til 3:00 pm. Mark your calendar and come join us!

Keep up the great work everybody! And don't forget to log and report your volunteer hours. :)
